

Surah 11. Hud

Asad: Behold, [only] those who attain to faith and do righteous deeds and humble themselves before their Sustainer - [only] they are destined for paradise, and there shall they abide.

Malik: As for those who believe and do good deeds and humble themselves before their Rabb, they will be residents of paradise to live therein forever.

Pickthall: Lo! those who believe and do good works and humble themselves before their Lord: such are rightful owners of the Garden; they will abide therein.

Yusuf Ali: But those who believe and work righteousness and humble themselves before their Lord they will be Companions of the Garden to dwell therein for aye! <sup>1516</sup>

Transliteration: Inna allatheena amanoo waAAamiloo al<sup>s</sup>alihati waakhbatoo ila rabbihim olaika ashabu aljannati hum feeha khalidoona

Khattab:

Surely those who believe, do good, and humble themselves before their Lord will be the residents of Paradise. They will be there forever.

1516 - Note that the humility is to be "before their Lord," i.e., in Allah's sight. There is no virtue, quite the contrary, in rubbing our noses to the ground before men. We are not to be arrogant even before men because we are humble as in Allah's sight. Nor does true humility lose self-confidence; for that self-confidence arises from confidence in the support and help of Allah.
