

Surah 23. Al-Muminun

Asad: and who guard their prayers [from all worldly intent].

Malik: and who are diligent about their Salah (prayers).

Pickthall: And who pay heed to their prayers.

Yusuf Ali: And who (strictly) guard their prayers 2870

Transliteration: Waallatheena hum AAala salawatihim yuhafithoona

Khatab:

and those who are ?properly? observant of their prayers.

Author Comments

2870 - In verse 2 we were directed to the spirit of humility and earnestness in our prayers. Here we are told how necessary the habit of regular prayer is to our spiritual well-being and development, as it brings us closer to Allah, and thus sums up the light of the seven jewels of our Faith, viz.: (1) humility, (2) avoidance of vanity, (3) charity, (4) sex purity, (5) fidelity to trusts, and (6) to covenants, and (7) an earnest desire to get closer to Allah.

View Page

Source : Alim.org-Compare Translation-Surah 23-Ayah 9