

Surah 26. Ash-Shu'araa

Asad: Behold, I am an apostle [sent by Him] to you, [and therefore] worthy of your trust:

Malik: Rest assured that I am a trustworthy Rasool of Allah towards you,

Pickthall: Lo! I am a faithful messenger unto you,

Yusuf Ali: "I am to you an apostle worthy of all trust: 3187

Transliteration: Innee lakum rasoolun ameenun

Khatab:

I am truly a trustworthy messenger to you.

3187 - Amin=one to whom a trust has been given, with several shades of meaning implied: e.g., (1) worthy of trust, (2) bound to deliver his trust, as a prophet is bound to deliver his Message, (3) bound to act entirely as directed by the trust, as a prophet is bound to give only the Message of Allah, and not add anything of his own, and (4) not seeking any interest of his own.
