Surah 27. An-Naml

Asad: Behold, it is from Solomon, and it says, 'In the name of God, the Most Gracious, the Dispenser of Grace:
Malik: it is from Sulaiman, and it begins with the name of Allah, the Compassionate, the Merciful.

Pickthall: Lo! it is from Solomon, and lo! it is: In the name of Allah the Beneficent, the Merciful;

Yusuf Ali: "It is from Solomon and is (as follows): In the name of Allah Most Gracious Most Merciful: 3270

Transliteration: Innahu min sulaymana wainnahu bismi Allahi alrrahmani alrraheemi

Khattab:

It is from Solomon, and it reads: ‘In the Name of Allah—the Most Compassionate, Most Merciful.

Author Comments

3270 - Solomon expressly begins his letter with the formula of the true and universal Religion of Unity, and he invites to the true Faith the new people with whom he establishes honourable relations, not for worldly conquest but for the spreading of the Light of Allah.

View Page

Source : Alim.org-Compare Translation-Surah 27-Ayah 30